

Employee Onboarding SOP

1. Purpose :

This document explains the complete process of employee onboarding, company policies, salary structure, leave rules, and exit procedures. It helps employees understand company standards and expectations clearly.

2. Introduction to Onboarding :

Employee onboarding is the process through which a new employee becomes familiar with company culture, policies, responsibilities, and tools required for their job role.

3. Pre-Onboarding Process :

Step 1:

Candidate receives offer letter from HR.

Step 2:

Candidate reviews job role, salary structure, and company policies.

Step 3:

Candidate submits required documents:

- a) Educational certificates
- b) ID proof
- c) Address proof
- d) Bank account details
- e) Passport size photographs

Step 4:

Candidate confirms joining date.

4. Joining Day ProcessStep 1:

Employee reports to HR department.

Step 2:

Employee submits original documents for verification.

Step 3:

HR creates employee ID and email account.

Step 4:

Employee receives system login credentials.

Step 5:

Employee introduction to team and manager.

Step 6:

Company orientation session is conducted.

5. Employee Information Setup

HR creates employee profile in company systems.

- Employee details include:
- Employee ID
- Department
- Job role
- Reporting manager
- Contact details

6. Salary Structure (Pay Scale):

- Salary structure includes:
- Basic salary
- House rent allowance (HRA)
- Special allowance
- Performance bonus (if applicable)
- Salary details will be mentioned in offer letter.

Salary may vary depending on: experience job role company policies

7. Salary Payment Date:

- Employees receive salary on monthly basis.
- Salary is credited between:
- 1st to 5th of every month
- Salary will be credited to registered bank account.
- Salary slip will be provided through employee portal.

8. Working Hours:

- Standard working hours:
- 9 hours per day
- Example: 9:30 AM to 6:30 PM
- Break time included.
- Weekly working days:
- Monday to Friday (or as per company policy)

9. Types of Leaves:

- Employees are eligible for different types of leaves.
- Casual Leave (CL)
- Used for personal work or emergency.

- Sick Leave (SL)
- Used when employee is not feeling well.
- Medical proof may be required for long leave.
- Earned Leave (EL)
- Leave accumulated based on working days.
- Maternity Leave / Paternity Leave
- Applicable as per company policy.
- Loss of Pay (LOP)
- If leave balance not available.

10. Leave Rules:

- Leave request must be applied through employee portal.
- Employee should apply leave in advance whenever possible.
- Manager approval required.
- Emergency leave should be informed through email or phone.

11. Company Rules and Regulations:

- Employees must follow company policies.
- Employees should maintain professional behavior.

- Employees must protect company confidential information.
- Employees should follow working hours and attendance rules.
- Use company systems only for official work.
- Avoid sharing company data externally.
- Follow dress code if applicable.
- Respect workplace ethics.

12. Performance Evaluation:

- Employee performance will be reviewed periodically.
- Evaluation based on: work quality communication team collaboration project completion
- Feedback will be provided by manager.

13. Employee Benefits:

- Employees may receive benefits such as:
- Health insurance Provident fund (PF)
Performance bonus Paid leaves Training programs Career development opportunities
- Benefits depend on company policy.

14. Employee Responsibilities:

- Employee must:
- Complete assigned tasks on time follow manager instructions maintain communication with team update work status regularly maintain professional conduct

15. Resignation Process:

- If employee wants to leave job:
- Employee must submit resignation email to manager and HR.
- Mention reason for resignation.
- Mention last working date.

16. Notice Period:

- Employee must serve notice period as mentioned in offer letter.
- Common notice period:
- 30 days or 60 days
- Employee must complete assigned tasks during notice period.
- Knowledge transfer may be required.

17. Exit Formalities:

- Before leaving company:

- Employee must return company assets:
laptop ID card access cards documents
- Employee must complete clearance process.

18.Final Settlement:

- Final settlement includes:
- Pending salary leave balance payment bonus (if applicable)
- Settlement processed after exit clearance.
- Payment credited to employee bank account.

19. Important Contacts:

- HR Department – hr@company.com
- IT Support – support@company.com
- Manager – reporting manager email.

20. Conclusion:

- Employee onboarding process ensures smooth transition of new employees into the company.
- Employees should follow company policies and maintain professional standards.